

For the Beacon and Announcements:

Movie Night

Our June movie will be “The Way,” starring Martin Sheen, a high-powered, no-nonsense ophthalmologist who is frequently at odds with his dreamy, head-in-the-clouds son. When Sheen is informed that his son has been killed in a freak accident in France, he decides to go there and walk the “El Camino de Santiago” that his son started. Along the way, he discovers the difference between “the life we live and the life we choose.”

Directed by Sheen’s son, Emilio Estevez, this adaptation of Jack Hitt’s book is a powerful story of family, friends and the challenges we face in this changing and complicated world.

Join us for an evening of fun, food and fellowship. Here’s the plan:

When: Friday, June 12, 2015

Time: 6:00 p.m.
